Practitioners and business people around the world rely on Intertax to keep them current on key taxation developments

Intertax is one of the longest-running and most respected international tax journals in print today. Throughout the years, many leading tax experts have written for the journal, and quite a few articles are considered groundbreaking ‘classics’ in practical international tax literature.

This preeminent journal delivers authoritative, reliable content and a precise, timely focus on important developments. Only Intertax will help you:

- Stay current with major tax developments across the globe— and stay one step ahead of tomorrow’s trends
- Ensure you’re well-briefed by highly regarded international tax experts
- Offer well-rounded advice based on a full combination of legal, tax planning and compliance perspectives
- Cut through the jargon and readily identify planning pitfalls and opportunities for your clients
- Place the increasingly important decisions of the European Court of Justice in a global perspective
- Zero-in on key tax centers with recurring US and EC columns
- Facilitate further research by providing extensive footnotes
