European Business Law Review

General Editors: Guido Alpa and Mads Andenas

A regular service of scholarship, opinion and information
The increase in cross-border activity and moves towards harmonization has created a high level of interest in European business law. European Business Law Review is the ideal companion to help you keep ahead of all the changes with authoritative coverage.

European Business Law Review’s mission is to provide a forum for analysis and discussion of business law, including European Community law and the laws of Member States and other European countries. The editors identify issues which strike a balance between scholarship, policy discussion and the needs of the practitioner. These issues may concern public or private law, domestic, European or international law.

With a subscription to the Journal you will receive

- Six bi-monthly issues to keep you up-to-date with business law developments at both the EU and national level.
- In-depth articles by leading academics, practitioners and judiciary from a wide range of European and international jurisdictions.
- Practical analysis and guidance on a broad range of topics including: EU competition law; harmonisation of European private law; arbitration; securities law; corporate governance; EU company law; employment law and insolvency.
- Coverage of legal developments in the EC and accession countries and insight into Transatlantic and WTO issues.
