International Dispute Resolution in Latin America

An Institutional Overview

by Christian Leathley, Clifford Chance LLP

Key features include:

- an overview of regional and sub-regional institutions relevant to international dispute resolution
- description of other institutions which provide investment guarantee protection and dispute resolution services
- insight into the way each institution is structured and how each legislates for its member states
- rules of operation of supra-national/sitting courts and ad hoc tribunals
- analysis of major Free Trade Agreements (FTAs)
- investment protection afforded by Bilateral Investment Treaties (BITs) and Free Trade Agreements, with a country-by-country compendium of the BITs and FTAs
- discussion of regional initiatives of relevance to future policy-making

International Dispute Resolution in Latin America explains the different dispute resolution procedures of which companies and their counsel can take advantage in the course of doing business.

Kluwer Law International is now part of Wolters Kluwer Law & Business. We continue to provide the global legal community with reliable international law information in English.
