Chinese Competition Decision Summaries
offers analysis of decisions in one of the key global antitrust jurisdictions. Our comprehensive coverage provides summaries of all published decisions from Chinese competition regulatory bodies and courts, edited by experts from the Centre for Competition Law and Policy at Shanghai Jiao Tong University, led by Professor Liyang Hou. This new resource assists you in helping clients to manage legal and regulatory risks in China by explaining the impact of decisions. Our unique database will be updated quarterly, enabling you to keep abreast of developments in a rapidly evolving enforcement environment.

European Cartel Digest Precedent Finder
Question and Answer charts on European cartel decisions, which helps you find and evaluate decisions in four key jurisdictions (the EU, France, Germany and the UK). You will benefit not only from a comprehensive database and speed of searching, but also from expert analysis by the editors, led by Johan Ysewyn, partner, Covington & Burling, Brussels, and Ewoud Sakkers, Directorate-General for Competition, European Commission.
