In today’s health care industry, good cyber hygiene and preparedness can save an organization’s business should it fall victim to a cyberattack or experience a major breach incident. Threats and various attacks are multiplying by the day. To stay ahead of the risk that exists in this evolving environment, health care organizations must prioritize preparedness and invest in their privacy and security compliance programs. HIPAA: A Guide to Health Care Privacy and Security Law helps organizations prepare today for tomorrow’s threats. Readers will gain a better understanding of topics including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) Privacy and Security Rules; permitted uses and disclosures of protected health information (PHI); breach obligations and response; and preparing for an Office for Civil Rights (OCR) investigation. Readers will find a comprehensive analysis of the regulations, as well as practical compliance strategies.

Highlights of the 2020 Supplement

The 2020 Supplement brings you up to date on the latest developments, including:

- A new chapter discussing the California Consumer Privacy Protection Act (CCPA), which becomes effective January 1, 2020 (see Chapter 14);
- A data mapping questionnaire to guide CCPA implementation efforts (see Chapter 14);
- CCPA Action Plan for implementing the new regulation (see Chapter 14);
• A chart describing key General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) enforcement cases from 2018 and 2019 (see Chapter 13);
• Updates to the OCR Enforcement table with summary of cases and outcomes (see Chapter 5);
• GDPR Contracting Flowchart to determine when a data protection agreement is needed (see Chapter 13);
• Important case law updates regarding the handling of biometric information under the Illinois Biometric Information Privacy Act of 2008 (see Chapter 8);
• Additional guidance on cybersecurity issues facing the health care industry, including the Cybersecurity Act of 2015 report and information regarding geolocation data (see Chapter 4); and
• An updated state-by-state guide to medical privacy statutes (see Appendix 8-A).

11/19

For questions concerning this product, billing, or other customer service matters, contact our Customer Service Department at customer.service@wolterskluwer.com or 1-800-234-1660.

To order additional products, visit www.WoltersKluwerLR.com or call 1-800-638-8437.