Table of Contents

Foreword xix

Acknowledgments xxi

List of Abbreviations xxiii

CHAPTER 1
Introduction 1
§1.01 Introductory Remarks 1
§1.02 Content of the Book 2
[A] Scope of the Book 2
[B] Objectives of the Book 3
[C] Structure of the Book 3

CHAPTER 2
Background 5
§2.01 Policies Underlying International Arbitration 5
[A] The Contractual Theory 5
[B] The Jurisdictional Theory 6
[C] The Hybrid Theory 6
[D] Interim Summary 7
§2.02 Policies Underlying Insolvency Law 7
[A] Notion of Insolvency Law 7
[1] Terminology 7
[B] Cross-Border Insolvency 10
[1] Universality versus Territoriality 10
[2] Classification of the Cross-Border Insolvency Laws Relevant to this Book 11
CHAPTER 3
Recognition of Insolvencies by National Courts

§3.01 Terminology and Notions of Recognition
[A] Recognition in International Civil Procedural Law
[B] Recognition in International Private Law
[C] Recognition in Cross-Border Insolvency Law
   [1] Notion of Insolvency-Specific Recognition
      [a] Recognition of the Existence of a Foreign Insolvency Proceeding
      [b] Determination of the Effects of the Recognition of an Insolvency
   [2] Conclusion
[D] Interim Summary

§3.02 Recognition of an Insolvency in a Proceeding before National Courts
[A] Law Applicable to the Recognition of an Insolvency
[B] Types of Recognition Used by National Courts in Connection with Insolvency
   [1] Recognition According to Insolvency-Specific Recognition Rules
   [2] Recognition According to Substantive Recognition
   [4] Acknowledgment as a Fact
[C] Incidental Recognition of a Foreign Insolvency
   [1] UN-InsModLaw Jurisdictions
   [2] EuInsReg
      [a] France
      [b] Germany
      [c] Switzerland
         [i] Case Law and Literature
         [ii] Analysis
   [D] Criteria for an Insolvency-Specific Recognition of Foreign Insolvencies
      [1] Indirect Jurisdiction
      [2] Public Policy
CHAPTER 4
Recognition of Insolvencies by Arbitral Tribunals

§4.01 Case Law and Literature
[A] Case Law
[1] Insolvency Commenced at the Seat of the Arbitration
[2] Insolvency Commenced outside the Seat of the Arbitration
   [a] Limited Territorial Effects of Insolvencies
   [b] Recognition According to Cross-Border Insolvency Law at Seat
      [i] Recognition by Reference to Decision of National Court
      [ii] Recognition by Autonomous Decision of Arbitral Tribunal
   [c] Recognition of Mandatory Rules of lex fori concursus
   [d] Principle of pacta sunt servanda
   [e] Recognition of Insolvency as Fact
[3] Conclusion

[B] Literature
[1] Germany
[2] France
[3] Switzerland

[C] Interim Summary

§4.02 Analysis
[A] Importance of Recognition as Necessary Preliminary Step
[B] Factors Requiring Recognition of Insolvency by an Arbitral Tribunal
   [1] Direct Applicability of Insolvency Regime of Seat Country to Arbitral Tribunal
      [a] Relation of International Arbitral Tribunals to National Territory of their Seat
      [b] Direct Applicability of the Insolvency Regime of the Seat
         [i] United States
         [ii] England
         [iii] France
Table of Contents

C  Objective Arbitrability of Recognition of Insolvencies 59
[1]  Objective Arbitrability in General 59
    [a]  Terminology 59
    [b]  Applicable Law 59
[2]  Forms of Recognition Arising in Connection with Arbitration 60
[3]  UN-InsModLaw Countries 61
    [a]  United States 61
        [i]  Arbitrability of Insolvency Law Actions 61
        [ii]  Arbitrability of Recognition of an Insolvency 65
    [b]  England 65
        [i]  Arbitrability of Insolvency Law Actions 65
        [ii]  Arbitrability of the Recognition of an Insolvency 66
[4]  EuInsReg Countries 67
    [a]  Recognition of Insolvency Commenced in Non-EuInsReg Member State 67
        [i]  Germany 67
        [ii]  France 68
        [iii]  England 68
    [b]  Recognition of Insolvency Commenced in EuInsReg Member State 69
[5]  Switzerland 70
    [a]  Arbitrability of Insolvency Law Actions 70
        [i]  Insolvency Law Actions as Pecuniary Claims 70
        [ii]  Concepts Limiting General Arbitrability of Insolvency Law Actions 70
    [b]  Arbitrability of Swiss Insolvency Law Actions 73
    [c]  Arbitrability of Recognition of an Insolvency 75
 Arbitrability of Formal Recognition of an Insolvency 75
 Arbitrability of Incidental Recognition of an Insolvency 75
 Interim Summary 76
 Applicable Law to the Recognition of an Insolvency 77
 Possible Laws Applicable to the Recognition of Insolvency 77
 Significance of the Seat Perspective of the Arbitral Tribunal 77
 Conclusion for the Law Applicable to the Recognition 78
 Criteria for Recognition of an Insolvency by Arbitral Tribunals 79
 UN-InsModLaw 79
 EuInsReg 79
 Switzerland 79
 Adaption of Recognition Rules of Cross-Border Insolvency Law 79
 Conditions for Recognition of an Insolvency 80
 Interim Summary 81

Chapter 5
Determining the Law Applicable to the Effects of an Insolvency 83
§5.01 Mandate to Determine Applicable Law 84
[A] National Courts 84
[B] Arbitral Tribunals 84
[C] Interim Summary 85
§5.02 Methods to Determine the Law Applicable 86
[A] Choice of the Applicable lex concursus by the Parties 86
[B] Conflict-of-Law Approaches in Connection with Insolvency Law 87
[1] Insolvency-Specific Conflict-of-Law Approach 87
[3] lex fori concursus as Mandatory Rules 89
[C] Characterization as Starting Point 90
[1] Significance of Characterization in Connection with Insolvency Issues 90
[a] lex fori 92
[b] lex causae 93
[c] Comparative and Functional Approaches 94
[d] Conclusion 95
[D] Interim Summary 95

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 6

Specific Effects of a Commencement of an Insolvency on International Arbitration 97

§6.01 Effects of Insolvency on Arbitration Agreements 97

[A] Distinction between Validity and Scope of an Arbitration Agreement 98

[B] Validity of Arbitration Agreement 98

[1] Comparative View 99

[2] Switzerland 100

[3] Interim Summary 100

[C] Scope of Arbitration Agreement ratione personae 100

[1] Binding Effect of Arbitration Agreements Upon Commencement of Insolvency 100

[a] United States 100

[b] Germany 101

[c] England 102

[d] France 103

[e] Switzerland 103

[i] Case Law 103

[ii] Literature 105

[iii] Analysis 105

[f] Interim Summary 108

[a] Executory Contract Provisions 109

[i] Comparative View 109

[ii] Switzerland 110

[b] Effect of Rejection of Executory Contracts on Arbitration Agreements 111

[i] Comparative View 111

[ii] Switzerland 113

[c] Interim Summary 113

[D] Scope of Arbitration Agreement ratione materiae 114

[1] Difficulties in the Insolvency Law Context 114

[a] United States 115

[b] Germany 117

[c] England 117

[d] France 118

[e] Switzerland 119

[i] Case Law 119

[ii] Literature 120

[iii] Analysis 120
[E] Applicable Law

[1] Possible Conflict-of-Law Approaches in Connection with the Validity and Scope of an Arbitration Agreement
   [a] Traditional Conflict-of-Law Approach
   [b] Insolvency-Specific Conflict-of-Law Approach
   [c] Lex fori concursus as Mandatory Rules

   [a] EuInsReg
      [i] Pending Arbitration at the Time of Commencement of Insolvency
      [ii] No Pending Arbitration at the Time of Commencement of Insolvency
   [b] UN-InsModLaw
   [c] Switzerland
      [i] Conflict-of-Law Approach in Connection with Insolvency
      [ii] Arbitration Agreement Providing for Arbitration in Switzerland
      [iii] Arbitration Agreement Providing for Arbitration Outside of Switzerland
      [iv] Application of lex fori concursus as Mandatory Rule

[3] Interim Summary
Standing to Sue or to Be Sued (Aktivlegitimation / Passivlegitimation) 154

In General 154
Significance in Connection with Insolvency and Arbitration 155

Interim Summary 155

Effect of Issues of Incapacity on Arbitration 156

Arbitration Agreements Concluded after the Commencement of an Insolvency 156

Arbitration Agreements Concluded before the Commencement of an Insolvency 157

Effect of Incapacity on Arbitration Agreement 157
Effect of Incapacity on Arbitral Proceedings 158
Effect of Incapacity on Recognition and Enforcement of Arbitral Award 159

Interim Summary 159

Applicable Law 159

Possible Conflict-of-Law Approaches in Connection with Capacity of a Party Subject to Insolvency 160

Traditional Conflict-of-Law Approach 160
Application of the International Private Law Rules of the Seat of the Arbitral Tribunal 160
Direct Application of a Substantive International Capacity Rule 161
Application of Closest Connection Rule 162
Application of Conflict Rules Applicable to the Substantive Validity of Arbitration Agreements 163
Application of a in favorem validitatis rule 163
Principles Preventing the Application of Inadequate Capacity Provisions 163

Insolvency-Specific Conflict-of-Law Approach 167
LEX FORI CONCURSUS as Mandatory Rules 167

EuInsReg 167

UN-InsModLaw 168
United States 168
England 170

Switzerland 170
United States 171
England 170
Analysis 173
Table of Contents

Evolving Practice of the Swiss Federal Supreme Court
- Problems in Connection with the Reliance on General Incapacity Provisions in an Insolvency Context
- Suggested Conflict-of-Law Approach for Issues of Capacity in Connection with Insolvency

Interim Summary

§6.03 Suspension of Arbitral Proceedings Due to an Insolvency

- United States
- Germany
- England
- France
- Switzerland
  - Case Law and Literature
  - Analysis

[B] Applicable Law
- Possible Conflict-of-Law Approaches in Connection with the Stay of Arbitral Proceedings
  - Traditional Conflict-of-Law Approach
  - Insolvency-Specific Conflict-of-Law Approach
  - Lex fori concursus as Mandatory Rules
- EuInsReg
- UN-InsModLaw
- Switzerland
  - Case Law and Literature
  - Analysis
    - Insolvency-Specific Conflict-of-Law Approach
    - Traditional Conflict-of-Law Approach
    - Application of lis pendens Rules Requiring Suspension of Arbitration
    - Lex fori concursus as Mandatory Provisions

Interim Summary
CHAPTER 7
Effects of an Insolvency on the Recognition and Enforcement of International Arbitral Awards

§7.01 Significance of Enforcement Proceedings in Connection with Parties Subject to Insolvency

§7.02 Grounds Opposing the Recognition and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards

[A] Legal Framework

[2] Arbitral Awards Rendered outside the Country of Recognition and Enforcement

[3] Consequences for Arbitral Awards in the Insolvency Context

[4] Interim Summary

[1] Validity and Scope of Arbitration Agreement (Article V(1)(a),(c) NYC)

[a] Delimination between Article V(1)(a) NYC and Article V(1)(c) NYC

[b] Validity of Arbitration Agreement (Article V(1)(a) NYC)

[i] Applicable Law

[ii] Consequences for Arbitral Awards in the Insolvency Context

[c] Scope of the Arbitration Agreement (Article V(1)(c) NYC)

[i] Applicable Law

[ii] Consequences for Arbitral Awards in the Insolvency Context

[d] Interim Summary

[2] Capacity of the Parties (Article V(1)(a) NYC)

[a] Ambiguities in the Insolvency Context

[b] Unusual Legislative History of Article V(1)(a) NYC

[c] Scope of the Incapacity Defense under New York Convention

[i] In General

[ii] Application of Incapacity Defense to Cases of Insolvency

[d] Relevant Point in Time

[i] Article V(1)(a) NYC

xvi
Proper Representation under Article V(1)(b) NYC
- [e] Applicable Law
- [f] Interim Summary

Objective Arbitrability (Article V(2)(b) NYC)
- [a] Notion of Arbitrability under the New York Convention
- [b] Applicable Law
- [c] Objective Arbitrability of Insolvency Law Matters
- [d] Interim Summary

Public Policy (Article V(2)(b) NYC)
- [a] Significance of Public Policy in Connection with Arbitral Awards Involving a Party Subject to Insolvency
- [b] Public Policy under the New York Convention
- [i] Applicable Law
- [ii] Notion of Public Policy
- [iii] Delimitation between Public Policy and Objective Arbitrability
- [c] Insolvency Law and Public Policy
- [i] England
- [ii] France
- [iii] United States
- [iv] Germany
- [v] Switzerland
- [vi] Conclusion
- [d] Interim Summary

Effects of Insolvency on Local Enforcement Procedure
- §7.03
  - [A] Applicable Law
  - [B] Significance of Territorial Effects of Insolvency in Country of Enforcement
    - [1] Territorial Effects of Insolvency in Country of Enforcement
    - [2] No Territorial Effects of Insolvency in Country of Enforcement
  - [C] Effects of an Insolvency on Local Recognition and Enforcement Procedure of International Arbitral Awards
    - [1] United States
    - [3] Germany
    - [4] France
    - [5] Switzerland
    - [a] Insolvency Not Recognized in Switzerland
      - [i] Enforcement Proceedings by a Creditor